Ramblers Win And Lose In First League Encounters

Didsbury's entry in the Chinook Hockey League have played two league games to date, both in foreign surroundings, and came up with a 5-0 average.

Last Saturday night in Red Deer they trampled the northern club by a 7-2 score. They led 4-1 at the end of the first, increased the margin to 6-2 in the second and the locals finished off with a counter in the third.

Top goal scorer for the locals was Miller McCoy with three. L. Neufeld with two and Don Irwin and Lloyd Devine got singletons.

The story was a little different in Olds on Tuesday night when the locals dropped a 6-3 decision to the lads from the north.

Didsbury led 2-1 after the first, the score was tied 3-3 at the finish of the middle period, then Olds rapped in three unanswered goals to take the decision.

Ramblers goalie Art Jackson suffered a bad face gash when hit by a flying puck and was forced to retire from the game late in the second period. His substitute was unable to hold off the opposition, who scored three quick goals to take the decision.

Miller Coy scored twice for the locals and C. Morris got the other.

Next game scheduled for the Ramblers is Thursday, Jan. 16, when Carstairs will visit here. On Tuesday, Jan. 21, Olds will be guests on local ice and the team moves to Trochu for a game on Thursday, Jan. 23.

BERGEN NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The Mission Circle met at the home of Mrs. Emma Lund on Jan. 9th. Guest speakers for the afternoon were Rev. and Mrs. John Gumble, missionaries on furlough after 5 1/2 years in India. The former needed little introduction here as he was born and raised in the district, and has perhaps been better known as "Johnny". Following lunch and a social hour, Mr. and Mrs. Gumble were presented with a number of gifts from the Mission Circle.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Erickson (Marjorie Bradley) are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, on January 2nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baughman are in Calgary, where Howard is taking a short course in electrical wiring.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Davidson are enjoying a holiday at the west coast.

Miss Marion Wideman of Carstairs has been renewing acquaintances here for the past week.

The Ladies' Aid will meet on the 20th at the home of Mrs. C. J. Halman.

The teacher and pupils of Bergen school were pleased to have power turned on in time for the annual Christmas concert, but it is our guess that the added convenience is appreciated mostly by the janitor, Mr. Elsworth Weber, who has been building the fire in the dark on winter mornings for a number of years.

The monthly meeting of the Credit Union was held Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Haley.

The Hall board held its annual meeting on Thursday of last week. The usual poor turn-out made it necessary for the former board to continue with their task of looking after the community hall. We understand that Norman Whitlow is to succeed Mrs. G. Brown as secretary.

Mr. D. McLeod is no longer associated with Mr. V. Brown in the butcher shop. Mr. Gunderson is assisting in the shop now. Mike is in Calgary now enjoying what he says is a needed vacation.

The new bridge across the Dog Pound was officially opened by Mr. Wm. Bagnall, reeve of the M.D. of Mountain View on Saturday, Jan. 11th. This bridge is a big step in the right direction for safer driving.

Shirley Roberts and Dale Befus are hospital patients in Didsbury. Tommie Earle, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Earle, had his tonsils removed last Monday. Tom is doing fine and returned home last Tuesday.

Mrs. V. Dewhurst is visiting with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. Stairs at Patricia.

Westcott News

(From Our Own Correspondent)

We extend very best wishes to all our sick friends, who are still in hospital: Mrs. Sid Willow, Mr. Gordon Ford and Mr. Joe White. Mrs. John Stevenson and family of Sundre spent Sunday afternoon with the former's sister, Mrs. Herbert Goetjen.

Mrs. Ross Youngs and Mrs. Herbert Goetjen were guests at the Westcott Jr. W.I. meeting at the home of Mrs. Allan Korschuh last Wednesday evening. They judged fruit cakes for the group of 10. We understand Mrs. Henry Wilson is also a patient in the local hospital.

New Officers Take Over Westcott W.I.

The new president, Mrs. Herbert Goetjen, presided over the first 58 meeting of Westcott W.I. The new secretary, Mrs. Burr Tuglie, was also beginning her year's work. Some items of interest noted during the year just finished were — the visit from Miss Howard, attendance at Farm Women's Week, a beautiful pastel picture done by a member, a paper hat contest, gift of a coffee spoon to a member of 10 years' standing, the social evening spent by the members and their families, the exhibits at the constituency conference handicraft display, the letters received from the W.I. correspondent in England, the woolen's project, and participation in a shower for a bride.

Mrs. C. Shields, Mrs. J. Luft, Mrs. Ed Klimek and Mrs. Cliff Eckstrand had perfect attendance during 1957.

A new member, Mrs. Johnny Tittsworth will be hostess at the February meeting and there will be a fruit cake contest held.

Curlers Plan To Start Play

Providing the weather co-operates the men's curling club expects to start season's play on Monday, January 20th. Curlers are asked to have their names or names listed at the Billiard Hall or the Town Office not later than 8:00 p.m. on January 17. This date is definitely the deadline for entries.

The dates for the annual bonspiel will be announced in the very near future.

Lone Pine W.I. held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. O. Milne with 17 members and five visitors present. Roll call was payment of dues. A dance will be held at Lone Pine hall on February 14th, with proceeds going to the rest room fund.

Items have been planned for a variety concert in February. A handicraft demonstration was then given by Mrs. O. Milne. The contest was won by Mrs. O. Bittner. The ten-cent draw netted $2.25 and was won by Mrs. C. Pauls.

Mons Chapter I.O.D.E. is always very happy to increase its membership and wishes to state that any woman or girl who is a British subject is eligible for membership in the Order. Five new members were welcomed at the January meeting: Mrs. Jan Miller, Mrs. Kevin Shannon, Mrs. Ian Smith, Mrs. Les LeGrand and Mrs. J. B. Hipkin.

Prior to her departure for Calgary, Mrs. George Law was presented with a sterling silver spoon with crest.

While most enjoyable the mild weather has greatly interfered with concession activities at the Arena — can't serve hot dogs without ice!

All annual reports will be submitted at the February meeting and the new officers for the year installed.

The mission started at Sundre also has grown and shows good advancement.

The parish numbers 285 communicants and 449 souls. During the year Pastor Fox officiated at 23 baptisms; eight confirmations; five funerals; and seven weddings.

At this meeting plans were finalized for the 50th anniversary celebration of Lutheran work in the Didsbury parish. The congregation will hold a congregational supper on Friday, January 31. On Sunday, February 2nd, 50 years to the day when the first constitution was signed at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Westcott, the Golden Anniversary will be observed.

As guest speaker for the day, a former pastor, the Rev. A. Reimer, professor at Concordia College, Edmonton, will occupy the pulpit. The congregation will also observe Holy Communion that day.

The various groups in the congregation were also able to report a very successful year. ### PARITY PARADE SOON FORMS UP

The promptitude with which the government has kept its pledges to increase old age pensions, and to make cash advances to the western farmers on their farm-stored grain seems to have started a parade of all classes of people to Ottawa as the inexhaustible fountain from which all wealth flows.

The provincial and municipal governments are in the lead with demands for larger shares of the federal revenue, plus power to incur liabilities for the federal government to pay.

Close behind them are the farm organizations, demanding guaranteed parity prices for all farm products, monopolies for their products in the home market, and cash loans to hold their products, till the Canadian consumers can be compelled to pay the prices demanded of them.

They also want the federal government to provide the capital for young farmers to start farming on a big scale and for older farmers to expand operations.

The building industry wants more government money poured into housing projects in order to keep the building boom going.

In this they are supported by labor unions, who insist on the right to fix their hours and wages while the government provides the money to make these possible.

The small merchants have joined the parade and are demanding cash loans to enable them to compete with the chain and the department stores. And the demand is being made in some quarters that all primary industries be given the same assistance the farmers are getting.

If need is to be the justification for granting government aid to private industry, it is suggested that every producer, every processor and every distributor in the country could establish a just claim for assistance. This would mean that practically all the people in the country would be receiving government aid.

It would also mean that all the people in the country would be taxed to pay for this aid.

We can't imagine any more wasteful method of distributing the national income than by allowing the government to distribute it according to the needs of the recipients.

they'd be cheaper
by the gallon

It costs plenty to raise a family these days. But if youngsters, like your car, ran on gasoline you'd be better off.

Want to know why? Today everything costs more, including the scores of things a growing family needs. Gasoline costs more, too.

But government figures show that since 1938 the cost of living has gone up more than 120 percent while wholesale gasoline prices have risen about 40 percent—less than a third as much.

And what's more—today's regular gasolines are far superior to the premium grades sold only ten years ago.

Writer Jumps At Hail Suppression Project

(Following is a letter which appeared in the Olds Gazette last week and which we thought might be of interest to our readers. We quote):

Dear Sir:
Should there be another plot to suppress hail, the ballot should not be loaded in favor of a "Yes" vote, as in the past. The ballot should be worded to have some bearing on the facts on issue. The promoters only promise partial suppression without guarantee, and it is an unproven experiment. The ballot should read something like this: "Are you in favor of an unguaranteed Hail Suppression Experiment?"

Our M.D. Council should see to this. The promoters have so little faith in their efforts, that they are offering kick-backs to those who get hauled out. If the hail board had a similar 100% coverage, hauled out farmers would get eight to 10 times what they paid in.

Nobody knows exactly how hail is formed. Apparently it is due to a conflict between a very cold air, which causes the freezing, and a moist warm air. Most farmers have watched the initial thunder-head develop out of a clear blue sky.

What the silver iodide does is to prevent that thunder-head from forming, and to warm up that cold air that's sweeping down; probably from the alpine-stream some 20 to 30 thousand feet high. But the fumes from these generators have no more effect than ordinary smoke.

Something could be learned if hail stones falling in the project area had been analyzed for silver iodide. If the fumes had reached the conflict area before hail formation, then traces of iodide could be found. Any high school would have the facilities for this.

Nature won't do our bidding at the snap of the fingers or a puff of smoke. To compete with nature, we must work on an equally grand scale. To get a drier climate demands the eastern slopes of the Rockies of its forests. If the climate got too dry to suit, re-seed those forests a big job. To get a warmer winter, build a range of mountains from the Rockies eastward through the Red Deer district. As the cold arctic air swept in, it would be deflected upward, and over the warm westerly winds instead of sweeping under.

It is my theory that during hot weather, a little low pressure is built up along the coulees, and that acts as a guide for the path of hailstorms. So, if Didsbury wanted a little less hail, change the scenery around, and fill in the coulees.

The promoters of hail suppression have something to sell. They are not here as public benefactors. It may not be by design, but they, in effect, are trading on the credulity of the wishful thinkers. So in listening to them, take off the rose-tinted glasses, and put on the dark sun glasses. Check what they say by your own experience with the weather system.

Seeding with silver iodide is highly touted as a rain maker. The boys were really busy last summer. Did we have a wet summer? It was the best summer/fallow weather we've had for some years, and the weather did not break until harvest, and the project was about over.

The boys are highly efficient with the alibis. With 200,000 Canadians dodging hailstones, it was lack of co-operation from the weather office.

When Olds was hauled out it was, "it would have been much worse without us, we saved all those who escaped." The wet fall would be delayed action. Do not let us be double-whammed another year.

keep those dark glasses on.

Yours truly,
An Indolent Oldster
P.S.: I have just read an article in the current Saturday Evening Post of Jan. 4th on San Francisco's Magic Fog. The fog, which is liable to come in during any season of the year, is really a stratus cloud come down to earth, and not the misty kind.

Experimenters have seeded this fog with everything they can think of, and failed to turn it into rain. With a cloud right at their feet where they can see what they are doing, all efforts have failed. Why should we believe there would be success 10,000 feet or more up in the air, where they can't see what they are doing?

Canadians Owe Big Money . . .

In Canada today, 90% of the total population do not pay cash for the goods they buy, according to Hugh Garner, in the current issue of Liberty magazine. "We owe the grand sum of $850 million to finance and loan companies. Another $900 million worth of our goods lies in stock."

"Next to the battle between the sexes, the biggest war in Canada today is between debtors and creditors," says Mr. Garner. "The creditors usually come out on top, but there are exceptions. In 1951, one finance company in Montreal wrote off outstanding debts of $10,000."

Repossession — taking back goods not paid for — often runs as high as 5% of the total sales. In the car business, 90% of sales comes from men who buy cars and then skip with them, reports Mr. Garner. One Nova Scotia man won a $5,000 law suit against a finance company in Halifax. The bailiff mistaking him for a skip, removed his car from a parking lot, while he was staying in a hotel in Halifax. This mistake cost them well above the price of a new car.

One Montreal bailiff once spent an uncomfortable two hours, when he went to remove a TV set. While he was on the roof, removing the antenna, the lady of the house casually lifted the ladder away.

Notes From D.A.

By HOWARD J. FULCHER

Seed grain should be available this year in a fairly good supply. Now is the time to plan your program as to cleaning or purchasing your seed supplies if the latter is required.

Any grain used for seed should have strong germination. Germination tests should be carried out on all grain which is to be used for seed. If the test shows poor or weak germination procure good seed somewhere else.

Germination tests can be carried out at home in moist sand or soil. Some elevators offer free testing and testers to farmers. If you run your own test count out 100 seeds and note them at a uniform depth, note the % germination and vigor of the young seedlings, do not count weak plants as they may not survive under field conditions.

Samples may be sent to Plant Products Service, Immigration bldg., Calgary for official test the cost being 75c.

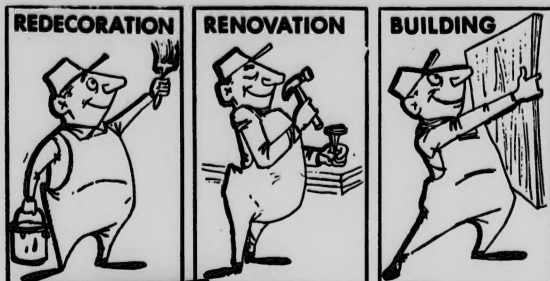

When taking seed for a germination test observe if there are many other varieties present. If the observation shows that it would be better to secure seed which is true to variety. When you know your seed is true to variety and if strong germination, clean it well.

Whether the cleaning is done at home or away do a good job, as seeding impurities and weeds is a money losing program. A test as to whether the seed is clean would be to take a sample and spread it out on a table top and count the good, fair, poor kernels and weed seeds and impurities. This gives a much truer picture than just looking at a bin full of seed grain.

Test your seed now, if satisfactory have it cleaned to a high level of purity. If it is not up to standard secure good seed somewhere.

Then she piled the TV set in her car and drove off — leaving the startled bailiff stranded on the roof, until the fire department finally came to his rescue.

This booming credit business is regulated by 86 Associated Credit Bureaus of Canada, headed by Arthur Bulled. These sleuths know more than your financial status — they know, from your neighbours, how a man repays a TV set. You're unfaithful to your wife, and even how often you beat her at night.

Nurse and father both agree that some things are too important to leave to chance. So, like most Canadians, each uses a chartered bank for planned saving, making regular deposits to accomplish a definite purpose.

Your own savings plan may be a short-term, modest one — maybe a vacation trip, or new drapes for the living room. Or your goal may be long-range, like providing more security, greater comfort and independence for you and your family.

Just For The Record . . .

We don't often express our opinions on world affairs in this column, but this time around we can't hold back. The British government are going through the process of a shake-up; the United States head man (one of the best in our opinion) is under fire; our own John Deffenbaker is standing on a very shaky foundation. Troubles, troubles, troubles. However, we doubt very much if any of the three heads of government will throw in the towel; but they all have a rocky road ahead. We can only hope they lead us down the right path — we believe they will.

Just For The Record . . .

At the time of writing the mild weather persists and one evening last week we witnessed farmers working in their fields under flood lights picking up crop that had been snowed under earlier in the season. The winter sportsmen have been taking their lumps with not enough ice and snow in sight to carry on winter activities. Their time will come, so don't pack your red flannels away just yet.

Just For The Record . . .

We haven't mentioned the entrance road from the highway lately. If we drive over it many more times we may have to send our message from a hospital bed or contact you from one of the local garages while we watch our car being treated for shock, miscellaneous rattles and other squeaks and squawks. The way we see it the main cause of these operations emanate from the wee bridge that sits about half way between the town and the highway. It has more pot holes than we have teeth. No filler available to smooth things off a bit?

Dear Homemaker —

How is your fabric "I. Q.?" With so many fabrics, new synthetics, older natural fibers and blends of all on the market it's hard to know what is the best choice for our money. The label should tell what is in the fabric and how to care for it. The label is your protection! — Ask for a label, read the label and keep the label.

Almost everyday we must make a choice between the fabrics on the market for each specified purpose. It is worth paying more for a nylon blend for Junior's play cloths and should the bedroom curtains be rayon, nylon or orlon marquisette? Here are some helpful hints:

What Fabrics For:

—Work Cloths and Children's Play Cloths.

The fibres that add strength and resistance to abrasion or wear are rayon, orlon, dacron (or terylene) and dnyel. Therefore, these fibres alone or in a blend with cotton or wool give a garment that is long wearing.

Men's and Children's socks

All synthetics have poor moisture absorbency. Nylon is the poorest and dacron and orlon somewhat better. For this reason, a blend of wool and one of these fibres is best because it combines the absorbency of wool with the strength and wearing qualities of the synthetic.

—Pleated Skirts and Permanent Pressing.

Orlon, Terylene (or dacron) and especially arnel are the fibres that hold a pleat well. A blend of one of these and wool makes a fabric that is excellent for pleating. A blend of nylon will not hold a pleat.

—Sweaters and Wearing Apparel

With the exception of arnel and vicara, all synthetics have two unpleasant characteristics:

(1) They tend to pull — that is, small balls of fluff or lint form on the surface with wear.

(2) They are electrostatic — that

THREE CHANGES !!!

At the age of 20 we don't care what the world thinks of us; at 40 we worry about what it is thinking of us; at 60 we discover that it wasn't thinking of us at all.

AND WHY SHOULDN'T THEY?

Arriving at a zoo one afternoon just as the monkey house was being closed for the day, a group of people were startled by the wails and shrieks coming from the building. When they questioned a keeper, he grinned and explained.

"The monkeys always act like that when we shut out the visitors — they get so much fun out of watching people."

GETTING ACQUAINTED !!!

Mrs. Jones: "When did you first get acquainted with your husband?"

Mrs. Brown: "The first time I asked him for money after we were married!"

A KINDLY THOUGHT !!!

Wife: "Dear, I'm going to appear in an amateur play. What do you think folks would say if I wore nightgowns?"

Husband: "They'd say that I married you for your money!"

is, they build up static electricity which makes them cling.

Keep arnel and vicara in mind as not having these characteristics.

—Drapes and Glass Curtains

Fibre glass is hard to work with.

It frays readily and has tendency to crack or split if creased or folded. It is resistant to sun and fire, is washable, quick drying and doesn't need ironing.

For sheer glass curtains, orlon is a good choice as it resists sun and atmospheric conditions. Nylon curtains are not a good choice. Nylon deteriorates in sunlight and your curtains would soon fall apart!

—Blankets

Orlon, nylon and dnyel make good blankets as they are light weight, bulky, warm and resilient (will not mat or felt). They can be washed and quickly dried.

Our bulletin on the New Fabrics gives further information on this subject. It will be sent free, upon request.

What Other Papers Say . . .

IS A "WEATHER WAR"

APPROACHING ? ? ?

In this day of rockets and artificial moons, even the most fantastic dreams seem realizable to man. Thus the comments of Henry O. Houghton, chairman of the meteorology department of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, cannot be shrugged off with too great skepticism.

Professor Houghton, speaking before an American 11-man advisory committee on weather control, shuddered when he predicted the possibilities of artificial weather control. He showed concern that the Russians might attempt to melt the Polar ice cap, and painted a gloomy picture of the intense discomfiture of the coastal areas of Europe and North America if such a venture proved successful. Low lying coastal areas — including cities, could be completely inundated if such an attempt proved successful, and the entire climate of the northern hemisphere would be changed.

This same weather expert feared that the Russians might be working on a scheme to change present weather patterns of rainfall — and warned that if such a scheme were carried out successfully, large areas of this continent might be robbed of moisture vital for good production crops.

Professor Houghton finished his assessment of the rearmament of weather by man by stating that "I shudder to think of a prior Russian discovery of a feasible method of weather control."

This thought, at this time, sounds absolutely fantastic. But in the light of scientific advances of the past few years, it cannot apparently be considered impossible. It might yet be that control of the weather — and not the intercontinental ballistic missile — will be the key to world power and peace.

AMBIDEXTROUS

FINANCE . . .

There was a time when mechanics initiated apprentices by sending them for a left-handed monkey wrench. If an executive should send a new office boy to the bank for a left-handed check-book, woe to the boy who mistakes the order as a joke. A New York bank is now advertising check-books for "southpaws". The subs are on the right, and so is the binding, and the checks can be pulled conveniently with the left hand.

This is good public relations. It could start a trend. For wives (and some husbands), banks might supply checkbooks with self-filling-in-stubs. For the convenience of banks themselves as well as customers, a check that translates the signature into legible script would be useful.

A non-missable check-book is a need of these times. Also one that rings a warning bell or flashes a red light when the withdrawals are nearly equivalent to the deposit.

For sons at college a check-book with Dad's photo on each check — and not necessarily smiling — could possibly aid in keeping whole families solvent. But the check-book we are really waiting for is the one that will automatically take care of whatever makes a check-book any good whatsoever.

Short of that, we would settle for one that would keep the right hand informed of what the left hand is doing.

— Christian Science Monitor

IT'S TIME FOR ANOTHER ELECTION
We need another federal election in 1958, and the sooner it takes place, the better.

We have a situation now in Ottawa that is not a healthy one. Parties are voting for issues on the floor yes or no, not because they agree with the way they vote, but because, for their own political reasons, they do not want, or are not ready for another election.

This is not a government of the people. The government must have a majority with a reasonable opposition.

It seems that our wish will come true before too long. The Progressive Conservatives will start loading their guns in the Bow River constituency at Aldrie on January 17 when they hold their annual meeting and nomination convention.

The next race should be a close one in this riding. Eidon Wooliams, who came close to edging out Charles Johnston last June, will undoubtedly be a candidate again. What will happen this time? Could be another election of dark horses. Last time they all had P.C. brands; this time under the possible leadership of Nobel prize winner Lester B. Pearson, we don't discount the ability of the Liberal party.

An election in the near future is necessary for the good of the people of Canada.

— Strathmore Standard

DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIES AND LABOUR

THE DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIES AND LABOUR plays an important role in the economy of Alberta. It makes a significant contribution in maintaining an industrial climate favorable to Alberta's progress.

THE BOARD OF INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

administers the ALBERTA LABOUR ACT which applies to all employees and employers except farm labourers and domestic servants. It is made up of six parts:

HOURS OF WORK—The General hours of work shall not exceed more than eight hours a day or 48 hours a week. In Calgary, Edmonton, Lethbridge and Medicine Hat however, there is provided an eight hour day and 44 hour week limit. In all areas daily limit may be exceeded by one hour but if the weekly limit of 44 hours is exceeded, overtime rates must be paid.

MINIMUM WAGES—The Board fixes a minimum wage and no employee may work for less without the approval of the Board.

LABOUR WELFARE—An employer in any industry is required to give his employees one week's vacation with pay after one year service and two weeks with pay after two years' service. In the construction industry an employee is entitled to 4% of his regular earnings in the form of vacation with pay stamp credits.

INDUSTRIAL STANDARDS—Any industry may, with the approval of the Minister, establish its maximum work hours, minimum wages and vacations with pay providing these are at least as favorable as required by the Act.

CONCILIATION AND ARBITRATION—The Act recognizes the privileges and right of employees to organize themselves for the purpose of collective bargaining. The Board has been very successful in encouraging industrial peace in its administration of this portion of the Act.

EQUAL PAY—Equal pay for women performing substantially identical work as men is provided for in the Act.

THE CO-OPERATIVE ACTIVITIES AND CREDIT UNION BRANCH

One of the functions of this branch is to assist interested groups in establishing and organizing credit unions. The credit unions provide members with a convenient method of saving and a source of credit. All credit unions are closely supervised and their books examined by the Branch to insure sound business standards.

RURAL ELECTRIFICATION—Also administered are several co-operative acts which encourage groups of farmers to install their own power facilities. The Alberta farmer can electrify his farm for as little as $100.00 down with the remainder payable over a period of years.

Other services of the Department of Industries and Labour are provided by the following branches:

- Apprenticeship Board • Factories Branch • Welding Branch
- Provincial Marketing Board • Gas Protection Branch
- Electrical Protection Branch • Alberta Power Commission
- Employment Liaison Office • Bureau of Statistics

- How often a successful executive, far from his small-town birthplace — maintains his contacts through regular receipt of his weekly newspaper.
- There is nothing quite like a small town weekly for neighborly news and intimate contacts.

They have learned from experience that when a publication is specially edited to appeal to the specific interests of a smaller group of people, its opportunities to make sales are multiplied many times over.
- The weekly newspaper is that kind of publication. Whether its circulation is a few hundred or a few thousand, it represents effective circulation.

Liberal Party To Scan The Future . . .

"All the political tendencies raging in our times are anti-liberal. That is the outstanding fact about the era in which we live. The movement of the world is away from individualism, toward collectivism; away from freedom, toward order and organization; away from personal responsibility, toward discipline, obedience and acceptance."

— Dorothy Thompson

The Liberal party held a national convention this week to choose a new leader. No doubt it chose the man who delegates think most likely to lead the party to victory in the election expected soon.

But the future of a political party depends on more than the popularity of its leader or on early success at the polls.

A party, to be worthy of survival, must stand for sound principles for which it is willing to fight and, if need be, to suffer defeat.

There is no denying the fact that, for years, the Liberal party in Canada, has been drifting away from the principles on which it was founded, and on which it was once elected to power.

It has drifted so long and so far that few of its present members have any clear idea what it stands for today. Its records during recent years, has inclined toward Fabian Socialism and the welfare state, which is Marxism Socialism in disguise, and the very antithesis of liberalism.

Liberalism believes in human freedom. It believes that man, the individual, is the crowning work of the Creator, and as such, is the thing most worthy of our respect. It does not seek to coddle him or relieve him of the responsibility for his own well-being, for such coddling would undermine his manhood and cause him to deteriorate.

Its aim is to encourage him to plan and direct his own life, and to provide for his own wants by using his own facilities while retaining his independence as a man.

It believes that freedom of thought, freedom of speech, freedom of conscience, freedom to direct his own life and his own actions, freedom to own property, to buy and sell, are indispensable to human development; and that it is

DISTRICT NEWS

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The examinations are over and students are waiting patiently for their report cards. The new semester started Tuesday of this week, and all students have again registered for work in the college. A few went home to visit over the weekend but most of them remained for Monday was an all-day choir practice in which most of them participate.

President and Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Kagey and Mr. Carpenter were Sunday guests in the Arthur Eby home.

Miss Lois Suder visited with her mother last weekend. Lois is now staying with Mr. and Mrs. Don Archer in Calgary.

Mrs. Suder spoke in the interest of missions at Bergen and Missionary Plains on Sunday. She did not return to campus until Monday evening. She will be gone each Sunday throughout the month.

A group of students held services at the Indian Reserve in Nordeas and on Sunday evening another group took charge of the service in Mountain View United Missionary Church, east of town.

The Social-Recreation Committee planned a social evening for the students on Friday. They went to Hunsperger's dam and stayed during the evening. A wicker roset around a camp-fire made the evening one of real enjoyment. Such recreation is indeed good for those who study all the time. Before they went out a basketball game was held at the high school gym. Mervin Traub is the convenor of this committee.

Arthur Eby is busily engaged in erecting the back entrance to the house in which he lives. This has been a great need for a long time, and the foundation and floor were laid this last week. His father, and brother-in-law, Ray Jones, both helped with the work. This new addition will make a wash and bathroom a possibility in the house.

Mr. Ormand Sherick has been very busy during the past week. He has much to do with the arrangements of the Youth For Christ meetings this week, and is also planning for the Youth Fellowship convention which will be held the beginning of next month. Ormand is conference director of the Youth Fellowship, as well as of the District Youth For Christ. Besides the Sunday services at Camrose each Sunday. He is a senior, and he and his wife will graduate in the spring.

Midway News

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. H. Richardson returned recently from a vacation trip to several points in B.C. During their tour they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Hughie Roberts at Courtenay and Mr. and Mrs. Van Wyok at Cumberland, and spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davidson in Vancouver. All of the above wished to be remembered to their friends in Didsbury.

No ice — Midway curlers are mourning, but with the temperatures dropping perhaps a brighter outlook is in sight for the men and women who carry the brooms. The girls and boys have struggled to keep a bit of ice for skating.

All will be glad to know Mrs. I. Shile's health has improved enough for her to return to the school room.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Charlton have again journeyed south for the winter.

The Home and School January meeting was well attended with local school board members being present with a delegation being named to meet the divisional school with requests for Midway. The program committee met Wednesday afternoon to complete their schedule.

Bancroft W.I. held its first group meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. F. Hauser on Jan. 8, with an attendance of 14 members. Roll Call was answered by paying dues. Three dollars was voted to the Girls' Club achievement day. The birthday box netted $8.75 and will be sent to the A.C.W. fund.

The yearly supper held to entertain the husbands of the W.I. group was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold McCulloch on Saturday, January 11. Thirty-one sat down to a bountiful table. Entertainment was in the form of bingo and military whist. The very pleasant evening was brought to a close by singing "Many Happy Returns" to Mr. O. Hoskin and "Happy Anniversary" to Mr. and Mrs. Ken Swanson.

Joy's Of A Batchelor . . .

The wife has gone on a trip to the East. To visit some aunts, and a favorite niece; She left me the dish pan, with her very best wishes, And told me to be sure and wash the dishes.

Now our old Tom cat, he looks kind of thin. So I up and invited the old fellow in; I gave him some bread and a few small fish, Now he's got the job to lick out the dishes.

I made up a big pot, full of mulligan stew, And it smells, and tastes, just like some home brew; The batchelors all came and just sat around, For it only took a cup-full to get them all down.

For breakfast, one morning, I decided to make A batch of light and fluffy hot cakes; They just would not cook and were as heavy as lead, I'll just use them for headstones when I am dead.

The fridge is plumb empty of good things to eat. My ribs touch my backbone. I am feeling quite weak; I'll just have to visit the neighbors real soon, And try and get there 'round about noon.

The floor in the house, that used to be clean, Now looks like a devil's opera. If ever one was seen; The cobwebs are hanging from the ceiling to the floor; And the dust is so thick I can hardly close the door.

I hope the good wife will soon be coming back, And put things around here on the right track; Then I can get some meat back on my old bones, And go around singing, "There's No Place Like Home." (Signed) E. COOMBS

Every bale turned out by the John Deere 14-T Twine-Tie Baler is "engineered"—compact, square-cornered, uniformly sliced and packed. More leaves are saved and bales are tied to stay tied even in rough handling.

The wide 53-inch pickup with 8-1/2-inch side-flares . . . large floating auger . . . and fork-type feeder keep a heavy volume of material moving uniformly into the baling chamber. The knife-equipped plungerhead and stationary knife in the baling chamber slice and pack each charge. Grooves in the bale case make neat grooves at the top and bottom of the bale where twine snuggles in protected against snagging. Efficient knotters tie accurately with fewer misses.
